OFFICE OF PETITIONS

Statements Establishing Unintentional Delay

1. The instant application was filed on behalf of the applicant by his agent. The applicant placed reliance on his agent for maintaining the application in good standing and prosecuting the application.
2. On October 26, 2001, the USPTO mailed a Notice to File Missing Parts to the applicant's agent.
3. On March 25, 2002, the applicant's agent submitted to the USPTO:
 - a. Fee Transmittal Form,
 - b. Petition for Extension of Time,
 - c. Copy of Notice to File Missing Parts,
 - d. Declaration, Power of Attorney and replacement drawings in response to the Notice to File Missing Parts, and

- e. a check for $525 as payment of the three month extension of time (Fee Code 217) and the late filing fee for the Declaration (Fee Code 205).
4. A return post card that was received by the applicant's agent indicates that the above material was timely received by the Technology Center 2600 on March 25, 2002. A copy of the date-stamped postcard is attached.
5. A copy of items 3 (a), (b), (c) and the replacement drawings in item (d) are attached. The applicant does not have a copy of the Declaration and Power of Attorney of item (d) in his possession. A new Declaration is provided herewith to replace the one which was submitted with the March 25, 2003 reply.
6. The applicant was advised by his agent that the response was filed and that prosecution of the application would proceed on its merits. Subsequently, the applicant heard nothing further from his agent about the status of the application.
7. On or about January of 2004, the applicant placed a telephone enquiry to the USPTO to determine when the application would be examined. At that time, the applicant was informed that the application had been abandoned.
8. The applicant had no prior knowledge of the fact that the application had been abandoned for failure to file a response to the Notice to File Missing Part, and that a Notice of Abandonment had been mailed to his agent on November 12, 2003.
9. The applicant telephoned his agent and informed him of the abandoned status of the application and provided him with a telephone number to call at the USPTO.
10. Thereafter, the applicant was made aware that his agent had received a Notice of Abandonment on November 26, 2003.
11. On May 11, 2004, the applicant's agent faxed a letter to the USPTO explaining that a response to the Notice to File Missing Parts had in fact been filed, and provided a copy of the return post card showing the receipt of the response by the USPTO. A copy of this letter is attached.
12. The applicant's agent received an Auto-Reply Facsimile Transmission from the USPTO indicating that the agent's letter was received. A copy of this document is attached.
13. Subsequent to May 11, 2004, the applicant contacted his agent on several occasions to check on the status of his application. He was told to wait until the USPTO responded to the May 11, 2004 letter.
14. Thereafter, in late 2004, the professional relationship between the applicant and his agent began to deteriorate, and now the applicant is assuming conduct of this application.

15. Until January 2004, when the applicant telephoned the USPTO and was informed of the abandonment, he was under the belief that his application was in good standing and that prosecution was proceeding on the merits.
16. Upon learning of the abandoned status of the application, the applicant instructed his agent to take the necessary steps to correct the apparent error in the abandonment of the application. The applicant relied on his agent in this regard. Thereafter, the applicant believed that the matter was being handled by his agent.
17. Since it has become apparent to the applicant that the agent's actions have been unsuccessful, the applicant is taking matters into his own hands in reviving the application.
18. The abandonment of the application and the delay up to the filing of the petition herein has been unintentional.
19. Accordingly, the applicant petitions to revive the present application on the grounds of unintentional delay.

RECEIVED

MAR 17 2005

OFFICE OF PETITIONS

Applicant's attorney received a Notice of Abandonment, a copy of which is enclosed, in the subject application on November 26, 2003. The reason for the holding of abandonment was failure to respond to the Notice to File Missing Parts dated 10/26/2001. However, the applicant did respond to this action. Enclosed is a copy of the return post card showing that this response was received by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Mail Room on March 25, 2002. Since this response was apparently misdirected, a courtesy copy is also enclosed.

Because the applicant did file a timely response to the Notice to File Missing Parts, the applicant respectfully requests that the holding of abandonment be withdrawn and prosecution on the merits continue.

Yours truly,
